Dear Mr Hill:

We are pleased to inform you that you have been accepted to the Labor Panel of the American Arbitration Association.

As a panelist, you will receive our quarterly publication, "Arbitration Times" and we ask that you notify the Panels Department at this address of any changes in your business or home addresses. A publication prepared for labor arbitrators, "Study Time" is provided to contributing members of the Association. Copies of three important policy statements which appeared in that newsletter are enclosed for your information.

Enclosed are some booklets and a list of our regional offices with the names and addresses of our regional vice presidents for your further information. I hope that you will find the time to arrange to meet with your area regional vice president who will be happy to provide additional information concerning our activities.

Sincerely yours,

Robert Coulson
President

Dear Ms. Guerero:

This letter is written on behalf of Michael S. Hill, mediator and arbitrator.

I have worked with Mike on a daily basis since he joined the Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Division of Workers' Compensation as a mediator in August, 1995.

Mike is a constructive peacemaker. He is very detail-oriented with keen investigatory and listening skills. To date, he has handled over 250 mediation requests, facilitating the resolution of disputes and providing satisfactory outcomes to opposing parties.

I am pleased to work with and learn from Mike. He brings a wealth of experience and a high level of professionalism and integrity to our mediation process. I believe he will make a strong addition to your panel of mediators.

If I can provide you with any further information regarding Mr. Hill, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan G. McAdams

Mr. Michael Hill
42 Lost Dutchman Drive
St. Peters, MO 63376

Dear Mr. Hill:

We are happy to inform you that you were the successful bidder to provide mediation services for Missouri Department of Transportation.

Enclosed is a set of plans for Project J0S0620 in Dunklin Co. for your information. We anticipate a 50% condemnation rate on this project and the date it must be turned over to District Counsel for filing of condemnation is July 1, 1999. A county map is also included for location reference.

At this time negotiations are taking place and we should know by mid May how many, if any, parcels will be involved. Therefore, May and June will be the time frame for mediation.

Please find enclosed a copy of the executed mediation agreement for your records. If you are not successful in locating a meeting room for mediation please advise.

If you need anything from us please let me know. We will be glad to help in any way we can.

Sincerely,

Sherry Glastetter,
District R/W Manager
