10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of expertise, and any other reasons why you should be selected as a neutral.

Having practiced as a litigator, transactional attorney and in-house counsel, I am uniquely position to understand all the parties at the table in a mediation and their attorneys.

My "special areas of expertise" are those which I believe help make facilitative mediation most successful: Good listening skills, empathy, honest, integrity, trustworthiness and competence. Bringing people together to help get the job done or put the past behind them is what I do best. Three areas of my life best demonstrate this:

1. My own transactional law firm, where I strive to always get the deal done and help my clients and the other parties reach mutually satisfactory arrangements without anyone feeling they had to "sacrifice" to compromise;
2. My volunteer work as an active Board Member of a local non-profit where I help them move forward even in the face of very passionate differences; and
3. My volunteer work as Chair of a quasi-governmental body consisting of two municipalities working together to promote economic development despite their many differences. Thank you for your consideration.
