10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of expertise, and any other reasons why you should be selected as a neutral.

My areas of concentration in the practice of law include business litigation, trust and estate litigation, corporate representation and sports law. In the past 10 years I have been involved in resolving more than 200 business disputes, ranging from succession issues to minority stockholder oppression to employment termination issues to corporate fraud.

My life experiences outside the practice of law provide me with the ability to structure creative solutions to legal problems. I have served as a member of Clayton, Missouri's Planning and Zoning Commission and Architectural Review Board and was Chairman of the City of Clayton's Strategic Issues Committee that recommended the building of the St. Louis County Corrections Center in downtown Clayton, a very controversial decision at the time.

I am a past president of Washington University Student Media, the company that owns Washington University's student newspaper. I was also the president of Washington University's Athletic Alumni Association from 1998 to 2003, and in 2004 I was elected to the Washington University Sports Hall of Fame for my accomplishments as a baseball player and student/athlete there from 1975 to 1977.
