I am an outside contracted mediator for the EEOC (Equal Employment Opportunity Commission).
10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of
- I have participated as an attorney in hundreds of employment discrimination mediations over the years, involving employees and former employees whom have alleged that they have been terminated from or harassed in their employment on the basis of their age, sex, race/color, religion, national origin, or disability, and/or have been retaliated against in their employment for claiming discrimination. Since 2019, I have served as a mediator for the EEOC (Equal Employment Opportunity Commission), mediating disputes between Charging Parties (current or former employees) and Respondents (their current or former employers). I have a passion for helping parties amicably resolve their employment disputes so they can avoid the time, cost, emotional toll, and uncertainty involved with litigation.
