10. In the space below, briefly describe your experience, qualifications, special areas of expertise, and any other reasons why you should be selected as a neutral.

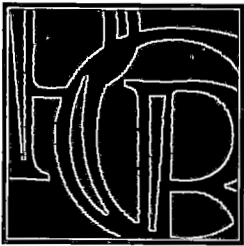

I have had over 20 years experience in business and commercial litigation. My practice has involved many complex cases, including large-scale jury trials, bench trials, injunctive actions and other equity proceedings. I have represented public companies, small businesses and individuals, both as plaintiffs and defendants.

With a sub-specialty in securities litigation and arbitration, I have represented both members, and persons associated with members, of securities industry self-regulatory organizations, as well as customers of member organizations. I have co-authored publications on securities arbitration for the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and participated in the training of arbitrators for the New York Stock Exchange.
